3606 Program Objectives

3606 Mens Community Residence provides a supportive environment that encourages participants to gain confidence in self sustainability and independent living. It is the program's priority to provide tools to help people re-enter society as productive, independent contributing members.

These tools are provided through vocational training, work ready programs, life skills groups, and individual counseling.

Services Available:

- Out Patient Counseling
- Life Skills Groups
- Vocational Training
- Volunteer Work Programs
- Individual Counseling/Groups

Community Residence Living

3606 is available to 16 individuals for a 6 to 9 month time period. Residents experience community style living with shared sleeping quarters, dining, and recreation space.

This community living style is encouraged with community dinners each night, community forums, and life skills groups. Participants must be 18 years of age or older. Syracuse Behavioral Healthcare staff are on site 24 hours a day.
